

Everyone

- PSA: Please shower daily and apply deodorant. Also, since we often wear our Summit and team shirts more than once, please bring shirts to wear underneath them, so that you can change those shirts and keep your Summit shirts fresher. PSA out!
- There are other guests in the hotel besides Bible Quizzers. Be quiet in the halls. Don't run in the halls or call to each other in the halls.
- Realize that other BQF ministries may have their own rules about when to be in their rooms and where they can be, etc. Summit rules apply to Summit people.
- Guard your tongues. Remember that other parents, officials, and people from other ministries may hear what you are saying. You are representing SBQ at Nationals. So, make sure you're mindful of how you speak about other ministries and/or table officials, etc. even in team meetings especially if they can be overheard by people not on your team. Display good sportsmanship and a Christlike attitude at all times. If there is an issue with someone from a different ministry, talk to your room parent or coach. If needed, they can contact a Nationals organizer or the director.
- Nationals schedule: Breakfast Thurs/Fri 6:30-7:30 ; Saturday 6:00-7:00; Sunday 7:00-8:00. Lunch 12:00-1:00 pm. every day. Supper 5:00-6:00 every night.
- Pool and fitness center: you may use these during your offtimes. If you are swimming, make sure to wear shorts and a dark t-shirt with sleeves over your suit. Dress modestly if working out as well. Note: be aware of who else is in the area and leave if the environment is bad. Adults, please ensure quizzers leave the area, if you feel it isn't safe.

Room Parent Responsibilities

Room parents play a key role in ensuring the safety, well-being, and positive experience of quizzers during Nationals. They are responsible for supervision, accountability, and helping maintain a safe and orderly environment. Thank you for helping make Nationals a positive and memorable experience!

Quizzer Supervision

- As a room parent you are responsible to make sure quizzers are in your room before curfew. If it's after curfew, and you don't know where a quizzer is, please contact a leader. Be aware of where your quizzers are at all times to an age-appropriate degree.
- Check in with your quizzers when quizzing has finished for the day.
- Make sure your quizzers know how to get to their respective places: food suite, quiz rooms, your room.
- If a quizzer's parents are not in attendance, please keep an extra eye out for them. Room parents, leaders, and coaches need to all work together on this. Check in on them at meals, ask them their plans during offtimes. In general, just try to be aware and thinking of their safety.
- Ensure your quizzers know that devotions and rallies are mandatory, and that they know where these are held.
- Room parents are responsible to make sure quizzers are awake and know what time breakfast is served and how to get there.

Curfew & Lights Out

- Ensure all quizzers are in their assigned rooms by the designated curfew time.
- Wednesday-Friday curfew is 10:00 pm
- Saturday curfew is 1:00 am
- Room parents must be physically present in the room at all times after curfew. If for some reason, you feel you must leave, contact a same-gender leader to meet you at the room.
- Enforce lights out one hour after curfew.
- Ensure no one is leaving rooms after curfew unless there is an emergency.

Behavior & Conduct

- Reinforce expectations for respectful, Christ-like behavior while being guests at the host hotel.
- Address inappropriate behavior gently but promptly. If a situation escalates, involve leadership rather than handling it alone.
- No excessive noise, roughhousing, or disruptive behavior.
- Quizzers should not switch rooms or have visitors of the opposite gender in the room, siblings included. You may, if your quizzers are agreeable, prop your hotel door open during the downtimes. This is an appropriate time for same-gendered guests to visit your room and hang out, as long as doors stay open and we remain above reproach. Mixed-gendered socializing should remain in the public areas on the white list. The only exception is team meetings held by the coach, and DOOR MUST REMAIN OPEN.

Safety & Emergencies

- Add committee member, coach, and parental contact information to your phone's contacts before arriving at Nationals.
- Have a picture of each of your quizzers' schedules.
- In case of illness, injury, missing quizzers, or other emergency, notify leadership immediately.
- Maintain clear communication with parents, coaches, leadership, and other room parents.
- Share schedule updates and reminders with quizzers.
- Be reachable by phone at all times during the trip.
